

After a good meal we need a good visit to the castle. This one is called Saint Germain and was an active castle from the eleventh to the fifteenth century. Subsequently, the owner of the late Earl broke and the fortification was taken over by magistrates, governors and district heads of Freiburg. In the late fifteenth century underwent a major renovation with which ceased to be a fortress to become a noble residence.

Up to the castle

The views are magnificent, the castle location is crucial

Kitchen space: light to take the picture was superb

Hall: the decoration of the rooms is from the Baroque and Renaissance periods

French garden