

On the way back from Gruyères we went here. The Jaunpass is a mountain pass at about 1500 m that links the towns of Jaun and Reidenbach. It has ski runs in winter and mountain biking tracks. It was like finding ourselves suddenly in the land of Heidi with houses on the slopes, full of green. Just missing the girl to appear running with Peter and her grandparent watching them from the door of the house.

The valley Jaunpass

Overview of the valley

Cows grazing

Once completed this beautiful mountain pass we come back home to prepare the next exit, we have a tour of the lakes near, the Thunersee and the Brienersee.

Preparing the next day