

We let Thun towards the north of the lake. Oberhofen is a small town with beautiful views of the lake. It has a medieval castle, the main tower is from the thirteenth century.

The castle has in the back a magnificent garden and a beautiful park in which we walk. The art of gardening is a good example here: different kinds of trees, diversity of alpine pine trees, rock gardens with flowers and plants, a tree-lined walk in tunnel mode, harmonics sets of flowers, in short, everything.

Here we end the tour of the two lakes, Lake Brienz and the Thun. The views are magnificent, the castles, first class, and the last walk in the park, a delight. A pity that we couldn't visit the castles inside.

Tomorrow we begin the path of the three ports, a loop road in the mountains to enjoy the views, glaciers, villages, waterfalls ...
