

Penultimate stage of our journey. We are in France, Yvoire, a medieval town, closed to traffic and very touristic, but this is not a problem. We walk through the crowded town looking one step ahead to discover the wonders that are hidden. Stone houses, hidden gardens, churches and castles. And all well decorated with multicolored flowers.

House with flowers

The castle in the background

The castle and the lake

Hotel